QUALITY AND HEALTH

As an ISO 9001:2015 registered company we are committed to Quality Principles, which will improve customer satisfaction and promote continuous improvement through the involvement of all employees, therefore: Quality improvement shall be an ongoing process and shall be a natural part of our day-to-day operations. Our aim is for all deliveries to be completely error-free(Derrors). This is a long-term goal based on the belief that we can never accept errors. Our quality improvements shall be continuous, even if we have achieved a very low error frequency.

We will set ourselves an annual target of Improvement in everything we do. AWT Building Contracting shall be the best in the industry at supplying the right quality of product and meeting agreed delivery dates. The products and services that we provide shall correspond to customer's expressed requirement so that this becomes a critical factor in the decision to do business with us.

All employees shall follow procedure continually on the site. The initial responsibility will lie with the actual worker himself and then up through his foreman/site supervisor to the safety officer who has the authority to take appropriate actions in liaison with the Project Manager if the conditions are breached.

VISION

To be the most reputed interior design and fit-out company in the UAE, committed to creating quality designs, providing timely delivery and creating inspiring, sustainable workplaces while maintaining exemplary relationships with our teams and clients.
